Reg Ives

Paula, Nicki and families would like to thank everyone for the cards, messages of sympathy, love and support received following Reg's death and during his illness.

Reg was a larger-than-life character in and around Stonesfield for over 50 years and will be greatly missed.

New Slate publisher(s) sought – urgently!

We have had no response to our plea for someone to take over as publisher of the Slate. We propose to give up at the end of the year and if someone does not come forward in the meantime, the Slate will cease publication with the December/January issue.

It would be very sad to see the demise of a village magazine that has been in existence since 1976. So please get in touch if you think you may be able to take it on or if you know of another likely candidate.

There is, of course, no reason why the format should be preserved. The new publisher – or publishers – may well have ideas for a complete revamp.

Afternoon Tea at Combe Reading Room

Following on from the success of the Combe Village cream teas in August, we are holding another tea event in the garden of the Reading Room on 8 September, this time in aid of the Cystic Fibrosis Trust.

We will be serving homemade cakes, cream scones, and hot drinks. We will also be selling handmade gifts, cards, and will be holding a raffle. Our top prizes include tickets to Blenheim, a luxury hamper, and a meal at the Duke of Marlborough pub.

Cystic Fibrosis is an inherited condition which causes the mucus in the sufferer's body to be thicker and stickier than usual, and this causes damage to the internal organs, particularly the lungs and digestive system.

The Cystic Fibrosis Trust is dedicated to finding a cure for this life-limiting condition.

If you are not able to be there on 8 September, but would like to support us, please contact Libby on 07958 595668 to purchase raffle tickets, £5 for a book.

Fee: £2 per item, up to two items per person. Tea and cakes will be available for £1.50. Call 01993 882301 for further details. The Turner Hall, Church Road, North Leigh OX29 6TX.

The event is in support of the Friends of St Mary's North Leigh, helping to preserve our beautiful Grade 1 listed church building.

Monday Coffee

What better way to start your week than with a free coffee or tea (and homemade biscuits) every Monday morning in the St James' Centre. We are there from 8.45 to 11.30am in term-time, and then from 10 to 11.30am throughout the year, except for Bank Holiday Mondays. This is a lovely opportunity for mums, having dropped children off at school, to have time for a chat before getting stuck into the week, and a good place for everyone throughout the morning to meet friends and to make new ones. We'll look forward to seeing you there!

Also, if anyone would like to join our group of helpers, please come along any Monday morning to find out more.

Judd's Garage junction

Following the last serious accident at the Judd's junction, there was quite a lot of concern regarding the danger of the junction documented on Nextdoor Stonesfield. Following my email voicing my concern to our local MP, this is the latest response. Dismay. What next Stonesfield?

Linda Bull

Dear Linda,

We have now received the following update from Oxfordshire County Council:

'Thank you for passing on your constituent's concerns regarding the Judd's junction following the recent accident here.

I would like to assure you and your constituent that we do monitor all reported incidents and where appropriate and possible plan to undertake suitable improvements if resources allow.

We have looked at this location and apart from this accident there have been three recorded slight injury collisions at the B4437/A44 junction in the last 5 years.

We have looked at the layout and condition of the junction and can confirm that it is in good order, with good visibility. Previous concerns raised at this junction have been in relation to the presence and condition of the lining. The lining has been refreshed in recent years and now includes the right turn arrow for south bound traffic turning right off the A44 and into the B4437.

We have also checked that all direction information signing is in place on the A44. My team have confirmed that there are 2 advance direction signs on each approach and a flag sign opposite the junction. We also consider the presence of vegetation which may be in the vicinity of the junctions as part of our regular safety inspections and, if it becomes an issue, it is cut back as necessary

With the above said, we need to ensure we prioritise our available funds to address the worst sites in the County, and in this particular case the information we have does not suggest significant works are required at this location. That said I would like to reassure you that we will continue to monitor this and other locations and address issues appropriately to ensure the ongoing safety of all road users.'

I do hope that this goes some way to address your concerns and that you find this information useful.

If there is anything further I can do please do not hesitate to contact me.

With very best wishes, Tom (Tom Sheppard, Parliamentary Caseworker, Office of Robert Courts MP, House of Commons, London, SW1A 0AA. 020 7219 7061 www.robertcourts.co.uk)

Stockey Woods

A group of Stonesfield residents got together in 2016 to discuss the possibility of registering Stockey Woods as a village green. In law 'village green' is used to describe any land over which the inhabitants of a particular locality hold customary rights.

We were concerned because Blenheim Estates had deposited a statement with the County Council which brought to an end any period of recreational use of the woods 'as of right', i.e. without force, secrecy or permission. There were only a few months left to apply for village green registration, which we felt was needed to be sure of securing the right for people to enjoy the woods in perpetuity.

To establish a customary right, it was necessary to show how local people had used the woods for recreation (not simply walking the public footpath) for at least twenty years. We collected over seventy evidence questionnaires testifying how villagers and village organisations have enjoyed using the woods for many different activities for decades. The earliest evidence dated from 1940.

An application to register Stockey Woods as a village green was submitted to the County Council in late 2016. In July this year, our application came to the top of the pile and the Council publicised it by placing notices at the entrance to the woods and in the local press. There is a six-week period for objections to be made. If there are any objections, the council may organise a hearing or inquiry in order to reach a final decision.

Thank you people of Stonesfield for submitting and collecting so much evidence. Let's hope we are successful.

Stonesfield Community Trust

In the June edition of the Slate, we appealed on behalf of the residents of the Cross and Glovers Yard, affected by damage and obstruction caused by bad parking. Sadly this has continued, with another resident finding damage done to their wall, and numerous complaints from those trapped within Glovers Yard. We are aware that this is a busy area for people accessing Pre-School and the church grounds, however, we appeal to people to please be considerate to those who live in the area.

Also, as a new academic year starts, we would like to remind all parents that there is no on street parking on the High Street near the school.

Thank you all in advance for your consideration to your community.

West Oxfordshire Community Choir

West Oxfordshire Community Choir is opening its doors to new members this September. WOC Choir has been running since 2013 and is open to all West Oxfordshire residents with an interest in singing. The group does not learn from sheet music, so music reading ability is not required. Previous singing experience is not a requirement either, as the choir welcomes singers of all abilities. The choir sing an eclectic repertoire of songs from artists such as The Beatles, Coldplay, and Stevie Wonder, as well as much loved show tunes and easy listening classics.

Weekly rehearsals take place on Wednesdays, 7.30–9.30pm at St James' Centre, High Street, and run during term times only. Fees are paid in advance on a termly basis with weekly rehearsals being charged at £6 per week. (Please note: terms range from 10 to 13 weeks.)

WOC Choir's director and founder, Laura Rudge, is a vocal coach and singing teacher with many years of experience working within the field. Rehearsals always include a gentle physical and vocal warm up which gives the choir members a chance to exercise their vocal chords and shake off their stresses and strains from the day, before the full singing begins.

If you have been thinking of joining a choir or are looking for a friendly bunch of local singers to join, why not come along to WOC Choir's launch night on Wednesday 11 September at 7.30pm (launch nights are free for new participants) and see if WOC Choir is for you. For further information, please get in touch.

Blenheim Palace

Fight against food waste

Blenheim Palace is joining the fight against food waste with the help of a new app. Launched in Copenhagen in June 2016, 'Too Good To Go' is the world's largest food-waste fighting app, connecting businesses with unsold food to local consumers who purchase, collect, and eat it.

Searcys, Blenheim's catering partners, will be offering 'magic bags' filled with £12 worth of food for just £4 at the end of each day. The bags, which can be purchased at any time via the app, can then be collected from 4pm. All the food is fresh, just not bought by customers that day, so is all too good to go! This reduces the accumulation of food waste on each of the 364 days Blenheim is open.

Nearly 90% of ingredients used by Searcys in the cafés are sourced within a 25-mile radius of the palace, supporting local producers and growers

800 annual passes to local schools

Blenheim Palace is making more than 800 free annual passes available to local school pupils and their families as part of its Associate Schools Scheme. The scheme, which includes 25 nursery, primary, and secondary schools, aims to provide increased support to local schools, working with them to create exciting and valuable experiences for students and their families.

Co-location of police at Woodstock Fire Station

The local police team will now share facilities with the Fire Brigade at the Fire station. This sort of co-location makes sense and is something I am working on across all areas of the public sector in Oxfordshire.

Charging points

The electric car revolution is set to continue in Oxfordshire, thanks to a successful county council bid for a slice of a £37m government fund. Oxfordshire is set to host two major initiatives to provide more charging points for electric vehicles (EVs) across the county.

Park and Charge will see up to 300 chargers installed in residential 'charging hubs' using car parks located in residential areas where properties don't have their own off-street parking.

Bell tower clean

On 15 August a small team of ringers cleaned, tidied and attended to coating the bell frame wheels, comprising Jenny Haviland, Anne Pounds, Lindsey Thornton, Jeffrey Thomas and Jack Peppiatt.

The stairs from the ground floor to the ringing chamber, the ringing chamber and the clock room above were all thoroughly swept and vacuumed and cobwebs and general detritus removed. Window glass was cleaned and extraneous material removed and disposed of. The bellwheels were coated with wood preservative.

Your village bells are in good order!

Rocket and Robot Storytime

Nine children enjoyed the morning of 1 August making rockets, robots, aliens, dream-catchers, and all manner of things that might be whirling round in space. We began with stories, then everyone got going with egg boxes, toilet rolls, coloured cardboard, shiny paper, stars, sequins, etc.

The results were spectacular (see photo on front page), and much fun was had by all.

National Summer Reading Challenge

Calling all children! Have you read your six books and qualified for a gold medal? It's not too late to join this annual eight-week challenge to read six books – but hurry!

The theme this year is Space Chase. Children aged three to 11 are invited to sign up and get a Space Chase folder.

As you read six books of your choice you will receive stickers, a game sheet, a bookmark, a wristband, and finally a certificate and gold medal.

FoSL (Friends of Stonesfield Library) will again host an Awards Ceremony on Wednesday 11 September in the Village Hall from 3.30 to 4.30pm. We invite everyone who has completed the challenge to come and be presented with their certificate and medal, and celebrate with cakes, biscuits, soft drinks, and plenty of creative activities. In the tradition of the last five years, we will finish with a group photograph.

The Adult Reading Challenge also runs until mid-September. There are free tickets to be won for Blenheim Palace, The Cotswold Wildlife Park, Crocodile World, Cogges Farm, and many others. More details are available at the Library.

Are you interested in helping to keep the Library open? It's the smallest of the 43 public libraries in Oxfordshire, and therefore the most at risk. Come to the Friends' next meeting on 4 September at the White Horse, from 6.30–7.45pm, to find out what we do.

There are about 20 regular volunteers, which means we each do one session a month, occasionally two. If we can keep the numbers up with some new recruits, then the duties are light for us all. Look forward to seeing you.

An Earthly Paradise: William Morris & The Thames. 14 September – 10 November

This exhibition illustrates the rich and little-known story of William Morris's deep connections to the Thames. We bring together a unique selection of works, with loans from the V&A, The William Morris Gallery, British Library, and many more. Highlights include Morris's Thames series of textiles alongside his original hand-drawn designs, a signed copy of News from Nowhere, and his personal fishing tackle and spectacles. Materials from the Morris & Co. workshop illustrate the production process, while socialist pamphlets that Morris penned and published, demonstrate his deep commitment to socialism in later life.

The Woodstock Bookshop

On Saturday 21 September at 7pm Patrick Gale and David Constantine will be reading from and discussing their stories from Refugee Tales III upstairs in Woodstock Town Hall. All profits from the evening will go to Refugee Resource in Oxford. The book is the third in a series from Comma Press, sharing the stories of people who have been detained while seeking asylum in Britain. The UK is the only country in Europe that detains people indefinitely under immigration rules and the stories give some of those people a voice. Other writers featuring in this volume are Monica Ali, Ian Sansom, Gillian Slovo, and Roma Tearne.

Poet and translator David Constantine is also launching his new short story collection, The Dressing-Up Box. His previous collection, Tea at the Midland, won the Frank O'Connor short story award and the title story won the BBC Short Story Award. The film 45 Years was based on his story In Another Country. He has recently translated Brecht's poems.

Patrick Gale's latest novel, Take Nothing With You, came out last year. He has come to speak here several times over the past few years, most recently when he talked about his novel A Place Called Winter.

Tickets £8, to include wine, from The Woodstock Bookshop.

Advance notice! Dates for this year's Woodstock Poetry Festival are 15–17 November – details are now on our website:

Stonesfield Gardening Club

The members of the Gardening Club do not have a meeting in August so nothing to report here. However, we kick off the autumn with a talk on 'Gardening Under Cover' by Chris Day at 7.30pm on Monday 9 September at St James' Centre. This will cover greenhouses, cloches, cold frames, etc., so should be a useful refresher of what we can do over the colder months with a little assistance.

Stonesfield Folk Dance Club

By the time you read this we will have returned from our summer holidays and be thinking about fuel for the winter. How about switching off the heating on Wednesdays and join us at the Village Hall to generate new friendships and new skills by learning to keep alive our Folk Dance Heritage?

We have recently had an influx of new members and have been meeting with them 20 minutes or so before 8pm to run through the basics that are outlined in the book Elements of English Country Dance. The new members have all been given a copy of the book and have found this, linked with the early start, very helpful. The end result is that new members will quickly learn the basics and enjoy the dances, so do come along and join us.

We continue to have live music each week and different callers, which makes for an enjoyable evening all for the ridiculously low cost of £2.50.

For further information see www.stonesfieldfolkdance.danceorg.uk, or visit Facebook.

Scout Group

This summer's Duck Race was as popular as ever, and it was fantastic to see so many families joining in the fun. All ducks are now counted, sorted and rested, ready for next year's race. Thank you to everyone who helped run and support this event – we raised over £2,500 for our new hut fund. Special thanks go to Shirley and John Hounsell-Mee for securing such fabulous raffle prizes and sponsors, and to Aldi at Chipping Norton for their generous donation.

In early July, our Beaver colony camped at Youlbury, taking part in various adventurous activities, while also working on their camp-craft skills.

The Scout troop joined in the weekend, providing the campfire entertainment and completing their survival badge, which involved building and sleeping in shelters, and cooking 'foraged' food over fires without utensils.

In June, Cubs went to county Cub World, where they took part in all kinds of water-sports and adventurous activities with Cubs from around the county, and Scouts also enjoyed their own county AquaCamp.

This summer we say thank you and goodbye to Paul Orsi, who has been co-leading the Cub pack for three years.

The biggest thank you and farewell, however, goes to Ali 'Apple'-ton, who started out in Beavers many moons ago, and in recent years has been our Group Scout Leader, supporting us from behind the scenes on all kind of matters.

As always, we are always keen to see new people volunteering, whether hands-on in the sections, or with fresh ideas on the Executive committee or fundraising. If you can spare any time or skills, we would love to hear from you at info@stonesfield-scouts.org.uk

It was good to see so many of us back again and also to welcome the Woodentops, who provided the entertainment. They played and sang some well-known old favourites and we were encouraged to join in. Time flies when you are having fun and soon it was time for our Tea Party.

We were able to gather round one large table and once again we were celebrating a Diamond Wedding Anniversary. We enjoyed scones with clotted cream and strawberry jam, lovely cakes, and English strawberries. . Thank you ladies, you do make a good cuppa.

Having enjoyed tea, Julie congratulated Alan and Avis on their anniversary and handed them cards and tokens from the club members. We are most grateful for this kindness. Thank you so much.

Next, we moved on to special birthdays and wished Judy a very happy 80th in a few days' time, and she also received a card and token from us all.

Our next meeting is on 12 September and we will take names for October's Autumn/Harvest lunch. Hope to see you next month.

Sport

Stonesfield Cricket Club

As the season goes into the last few weeks, both 1st & 2nd XIs have hit top form. Since a heavy home defeat vs Chipping Norton, our first team have reeled off 3 straight wins (vs Wolvercote, Oxenford & Marsh Gibbon) to climb to 6th in Division 1. In the latest win, George Redknapp was simply heroic having had to go to A&E for stitches in a gashed lip, and returned to find the team struggling 7 wickets down. He strapped his pads on and strode out to hit a match winning 14 not out. Legend!

The 2nd XI have won 6 of the last 7 league games, and must win their last 4 matches to win Division 7 league trophy – for their first honours in many years. We recently defeated the league leaders Chipping Norton 2nds on their own patch with a sensational run chase, reaching 207 for 6 to win with 3 balls left. The lads will need all the support they can get in the last month.

We've still been putting faith in young players. For example, 13 year-old Aston Walker made his debut in a men's friendly match recently, and took his first senior wicket – well done young man!

From your Parish Priest

I was able to help out with the Intercontinental Church Society again this year (ICS). I wasn't going to offer this year, but they phoned to say that they had been let down through illness and could I do a chaplaincy in Cavallino near Venice again. They wanted me for three weeks, but I could only offer two. They said that would be OK and on 16 July we set off for Marco Polo Airport and Cavallino.

The chaplaincy went well, apart from a torrential thunderstorm that developed over Saturday afternoon on the second week, and continued into Sunday morning. The road outside, where we stayed, was transformed into 'little Venice' with the water coming up to just below the knee.

Sadly, the Lutheran Chaplain's service in the morning only had one attendee, who waded through the floods to attend. By 6.30pm, the time of our service, it had more or less dried up and we managed around 40 attendees. They were Lithuanians, Austrians, Irish, Polish, German, Italian, and, of course, English.

The sermon was an easy subject to pick after the rains; I chose 'Being a good neighbour' which, of course, brought into play the story of the Good Samaritan. I even suggested that living under separate national flags did not stop us being good neighbours, just in case we do eventually leave the EU!

The exchange rate, of course, took a bit of a battering, as far as the pound was concerned, so things were quite expensive. Venice was more of a crush than former years and again the prices seem to increase year on year.

Monetary considerations apart though, the chaplaincy was well worth the effort with people seeming to be appreciative of our English-speaking services and pastoral services throughout the two weeks. However, as always, it was good to be back in Stonesfield and Combe and to check up what everyone had been getting up to.

It's always the case, isn't it, that travelling is a terrific adventure, but getting home is also always looked forward to.

This year the lawns were still actually green on our return. I remember last year when the grass was just a 'brown fuzz' after the summer break. Unfortunately, the weeds grow whatever the weather so some maintenance was required. I wanted the Rectory to be in good shape for our get together on 31 August. That said, of course, it's friendship and our relationships that count, rather than the lawn and material things around us. Which brings me full circle in being a good neighbour, it is being a good friend that really counts.

I hope that all your loved ones and friends have had a good summer and have kept safe over the summer break, if indeed you and they managed one.

Hope to see you all soon, if not at our many church services, then around our communities of Combe and Stonesfield. As always, if I see you around, Don't Forget To Wave — or as I normally put it D.F.T.W.

Rev Roy

Action!

The problem wall crack inside the main Church building is soon to be diagnosed. Scaffolding is to be erected and a small area of the roof opened for inspection. This is likely to lead on to other checks, which may well determine the safety and future of the Church.

At times like this, asking for God's help becomes more urgent, and I for one am up front with the asking. Sometimes the simple words of a hymn can help us to look at God's bigger picture and a favourite of mine at the moment is John Glynn's I watch the sun rise. It's simply beautiful!

Services continue here – come and join one soon. Sundays at 11am.

Thanks

On a Saturday in August, the Church was transformed into a busy tearoom. Friends old and new came along, and shared a blessed and happy afternoon together. Thank you to everyone who gave kind support, help, and donations. Please come again next year – all being well!

Hospitality

The Gospels give us considerable insights into the culture of 1st century Judea, and one of the salient features which emerges is the importance of hospitality. It was considered essential that households offered food and shelter to all who asked it. We see in the Book of Genesis (18:1–10) Abraham sitting by his tent when he sees three strangers:

As soon as he saw them he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, and bowed to the ground. 'My Lord', he said, 'I beg you, if I find favour with you, kindly do not pass your servant by. A little water shall be brought; you shall wash your feet and lie down under the tree. Let me fetch a little bread and you shall refresh yourselves before going further.'

Abraham was showing us the importance of welcome, even when inconvenient. In this passage, Abraham is giving us insights into how we should welcome Christ into our lives: with willing warmth and openness of heart.

This is reiterated in Luke's Gospel (10:38–42) in that famous story of Mary and Martha. Martha was following the rules of hospitality ensuring that Jesus and his followers had water, food, and comfort, but it was Mary who sat and listened to Jesus' message. One of the messages from that passage is that our welcome to God through Jesus Christ, is not just about the outward forms of conventional activity, but a genuine willingness to listen to the message: 'Be still and know that I am God.' Psalm 46:10.

SUMMER'S END

With the School holidays almost over and the nights drawing in it'll be starting to feel very autumnal

At the pub our Quiz Nights and Folk Nights are continuing to be a great success so thank you to everyone who supports us. We also enjoyed a lovely night of Guinguette music, so much so that we will try to make it a regular event.

Watch this space for news of upcoming events during the Autumn. We'll have our Halloween Party, which is always great fun, and we'll start doing our Pie & a Pint Nights to warm you up during the colder nights.
