

Thames Valley Police have been contacted about criminal damage to fencing and gates around the field marked in the map. Please could we remind people this field is private property and any damage caused to fencing, gates or locks is criminal damage. Please keep to the permitted footpaths and bridal ways. Identified offenders will be passed to local police officers.

Kind regards

PCSO Helen Keen