

Community Matters

A vision for Woodstock Division

A weekly bulletin covering the whole Woodstock Division from County Councillor Andy Graham
Bulletin 3 for week ending Friday 18th June

Woodstock Town Council

Subject Matter:

Briefings with County and district officers over infrastructure and planning applications in Banbury Road and Hill Rise are stepped up. A holistic approach is advocated with joined up thinking and actions to ensure community sustainability is paramount and well thought through infrastructure is planned.

Action:

Further meetings over the deep concerns of current plans to happen with the applicants.

Subject Matter:

Parking in bus lay-by particularly in Manor Road (A44) is not acceptable.

Action:

Repainting of yellow lines and markings to be carried out and enforcement to be followed up with the district council enforcement officers. Safety first.

Subject Matter:

Rectory lane residents outline concerns over HGV and large vehicles damaging road surface and dust/dirt/mud on the roadway.

Action:

Woodstock House to be contacted to act with contractors over the mess on road surfaces and county officers to visit the site

Subject Matter:

Repairs to road surfaces underway in Upper Brook Hill Hensington road and Union Street by August
Visited local primary school to offer advice and support to school.

Action:

Ongoing

Combe

Subject Matter:

Reducing speed to 20mph outline plan of action agreed with me, highways officer and parish council councillors in a partnership approach

Action:

Progress underway with further actions agreed. including the planned scheme and costings, agreed funding by parish and county.

Visited school to offer support and advice.

Stonesfield

Subject Matter:

The White Horse

Called and held a meeting together with Robert Courts MP to open dialogue with the new owner in a bid to get the pub re-opened.

Action:

Visited local primary school to offer my services.